The screenshot shows the Zoom mobile app interface for authorizing the Tellfy app. At the top left is the Zoom logo. In the center, there are icons for Zoom and Tellfy with a double-headed arrow between them. Below this, the text reads "You are about to add Tellfy BETA". A warning box contains an information icon and text: "App can access and manage this information even when not using the app. This app may enable an in-meeting notification to participants if the app is used to access real-time video, audio, chat, or meeting files. Learn more". Below the warning is a section titled "App can manage information" with the subtext "Associated with you and others who participate in Zoom experiences with you". This section lists three permissions: "Registration & Scheduling", "Participants", and "Content", each with a right-pointing chevron. At the bottom, there is a checkbox for "Allow this app to use my shared access permissions. Learn more". Below the checkbox is a disclaimer: "By clicking Authorize, you give permission to this app to use your information in accordance with their Terms & Privacy Policy. You can remove this app at any time in My Apps". At the very bottom are two buttons: "Decline" and "Authorize", with the "Authorize" button highlighted by a blue border.
